

APPROVED,
SENATE 18.03.2025

University of Bucharest

Methodology for appointing the members of the Council for Doctoral Studies within the Institution Organising Doctoral Studies – University of Bucharest

Bucharest
2025

CHAPTER I. General provisions

Art. 1.

(1) This Methodology regulates the appointment of the members of the Council for Doctoral Studies, hereinafter referred to as CSUD, within the Institution Organising Doctoral Studies – University of Bucharest, hereinafter referred to as IOSUD – UB.

(2) This Methodology is adopted in accordance with Law no. 199/2023 on Higher Education, as subsequently amended and supplemented, of the provisions of Ministerial Order no. 3020/2024 for the approval of the Framework Regulation on doctoral university studies, with subsequent amendments and completions, of Ministerial Order no. 6227/2023 for the approval of The framework methodology regarding the process of establishing and electing management structures and functions at the level of higher education institutions and of the Charter of the University of Bucharest of 2023 ("Charter").

Art. 2.

This Methodology is developed taking into account the principles of legality, university autonomy, transparency, responsibility, as well as ethical and deontological norms.

CHAPTER II. Structure and appointment of CSUD members

Art. 3.

(1) CSUD is one of the governing structures in the University of Bucharest.

2. The CSUD shall consist of 17 members, including the Director of the CSUD.

(3) The term of office of the members of the CSUD shall be 5 years.

(4) The members of the CSUD are:

- a) full doctoral supervisors from IOSUD – UB;
- b) doctoral supervisors from the country or abroad;
- c) representatives of doctoral students from the doctoral schools of IOSUD – UB, in proportion of 25%.

(5) The composition of the CSUD will reflect the principle of representativeness by adequately structuring the polling stations (by field of doctoral studies) that will designate the 11 elected doctoral supervisors of the CSUD.

(6) The organisation of elections shall take place in 3 polling stations provided for in this Methodology.

Art. 4.

(1) The director of the CSUD is appointed following a public contest organised by IOSUD – UB based on its own methodology approved by the UB Senate, and is a member of the CSUD by right.

2. The other members of the CSUD shall be appointed as follows:

a) the 11 doctoral supervisors of CSUD are elected by universal, direct, secret and equal vote of the full doctoral supervisors from the doctoral schools of IOSUD – UB in the 11 polling stations mentioned in this methodology (Annex no.1).

b) The 5 doctoral students from CSUD are elected by universal, direct, secret and equal vote of the doctoral students from the doctoral schools of IOSUD – UB in the 5 polling stations provided in this methodology (Annex no.1).

Art. 5.

(1) The 11 doctoral supervisors of the CSUD are appointed following the elections in the following polling stations:

a) Biology and Environmental Science – 1 PhD supervisor;

b) Psychology and Educational Sciences – 1 PhD supervisor;

c) Physics and Chemistry – 1 PhD supervisor;

d) Geography and Geology – 1 PhD supervisor;

e) History, Theology (Baptist and Roman Catholic) and Communication Sciences – 1 PhD supervisor;

f) Orthodox Theology and Philosophy – 1 doctoral supervisor;

g) Law and Political Science – 1 PhD supervisor;

h) Mathematics and Computer Science – 1 PhD supervisor;

i) Sociology, Social Work, Administrative Sciences and Business Administration – 1 PhD supervisor;

j) Letters (Letters and SITT) – 1 PhD supervisor;

k) Foreign Languages and Literatures (Cultural Languages and Identities and Literary and Cultural Studies) – 1 PhD supervisor.

(2) The doctoral supervisors who hold the main affiliation to the Interdisciplinary School of Doctoral Studies - ISDS UB will associate in order to vote in the constituency related to the field of doctoral studies in which they hold the habilitation.

(3) The doctoral supervisors who hold the habilitation in two fields of doctoral studies will choose, for the purpose of voting, only one of them.

Art. 6.

The 5 doctoral students representing the doctoral students within the doctoral schools, are distributed by doctoral fields as follows:

- a) For the doctoral fields Mathematics, Computer Science, Physics, Chemistry, Biology, Geology, Geography and Environmental Science – 1 representative.
- b) For the doctoral fields of Philosophy, History and Theology – 1 representative.
- c) For the doctoral fields Philology and Cultural Studies – 1 representative.
- d) For the doctoral fields Administrative Sciences, Business Administration, Law, Communication Sciences and Political Science – 1 representative.
- e) For the doctoral fields Psychology, Educational Sciences, Sociology and Social Work – 1 representative.

Art. 7.

Candidates for the positions of members of the CSUD must meet the following conditions:

- a) the doctoral supervisors must have the quality of tenure and meet the minimum and mandatory standards for granting the habilitation certificate, approved by order of the Minister of Education, which are in force on the date of election;
- b) the doctoral supervisors must have successfully supervised, until they have obtained the title of Doctor, at least 2 doctoral students in the last 6 years, and the last doctoral student supervised must not be enrolled more than 4 years before the moment of submission of the application;
- c) the doctoral students must be within the legal duration for doctoral study programmes (in the first 4 years of studies, or during the extension period of up to 2 years), a quality proven by the validation of the candidacy by each doctoral school.
- d) Doctoral students who are in a period of interruption or those who have not fulfilled their obligations in the doctoral study programme cannot apply.

CHAPTER III. Organisation of the elections of CSUD members

Art. 8.

(1) The Central Election Commission shall be proposed by the Rector and approved by the Senate of the University of Bucharest. The Central Election Commission is composed of 6 members, of which 4 are teaching or research staff, 1 doctoral student and a secretary of the electoral commission (Annex no. 7).

(2) The electoral commissions of the polling station shall be composed of a representative from each doctoral school and shall be approved by the UB Senate.

(3) The electoral commission of the polling station for the election of doctoral students shall have in its structure 5 student-doctoral student representatives, namely:

- b) list of electors for the election of CSUD members as doctoral students.

Art. 11.

(1) Candidates for the position of member of the CSUD, doctoral supervisors, shall submit their applications electronically to birou@doctorat.unibuc.ro , by the deadline specified in the announcement regarding the election of the members of the CSUD.

(2) The application file shall contain:

- a) The notice of submission of the candidacy (according to Annex no. 2) which also includes the attestation of the fulfilment of the conditions for candidacy provided in art. 7.
- b) Copy of the identity card, passport or other identity document drawn up for a purpose equivalent to the identity card;
- c) Curriculum vitae, signed and dated.

Art. 12.

(1) Doctoral students, candidates for the position of member of CSUD, submit their applications electronically, to birou@doctorat.unibuc.ro address , by the deadline specified in the announcement regarding the election of CSUD members. The doctoral school certifies the quality of doctoral student and the fulfilment of the required conditions.

(2) The doctoral student's application file contains:

- a) Notice of submission of the application (according to Annex no. 3).

- b) Copy of the identity card, passport or other identity document drawn up for a purpose equivalent to the identity card.
- c) Curriculum vitae, signed and dated.
- d) The certificate issued by the doctoral school confirming the quality of doctoral student.

Art. 13.

(1) The candidacy files for the elections shall be submitted according to the Election Calendar approved by the Senate.

(2) The date, manner in which the process will be conducted and place of the elections shall be mentioned in the Election Calendar approved by the Senate.

Art. 14.

At the request of the Central Election Commission, the Secretariat Directorate through the Doctorate, Habilitation and Integrity Service (SDAI) provides other information necessary for the analysis of the candidacy files. The Central Election Commission checks the candidacy files for the position of CSUD member and displays the final list of candidates for each constituency.

Art. 15.

(1) Doctoral supervisors and doctoral students shall vote on a single ballot paper, specific to the assigned district, according to the lists drawn up by the doctoral schools.

(2) The ballot papers shall be drawn up as follows:

- a) A separate type of ballot paper will be drawn up for each constituency, according to Annex no. 4 for doctoral supervisors and Annex no. 5 for doctoral students.
- b) Candidates from a constituency will be mentioned on the ballot papers in alphabetical order, specifying the field of doctorate/doctoral school that he/she represents.
- c) A ballot paper is considered valid if only one candidate from the number of candidates registered in that constituency is indicated.

Art. 16.

The Central Elections Commission prepares the ballots and organises the polling stations for the day, voting hours and location made public in the announcement on the election of the members of the CSUD.

Art. 17.

- (1) The candidates who obtained the highest number of votes in each of the 11 constituencies provided for in art.5 shall be declared elected members of the CSUD, doctoral supervisors.
- (2) The candidates who obtained the highest number of votes for the 5 constituencies provided for in art. 6 are declared elected members of the CSUD, doctoral students.

Art. 18.

- (1) In case of a tie in the number of votes obtained for doctoral supervisors, the following 2 tie-breaking criteria shall be taken into account:
 - (a) the candidate who supervised the highest number of doctoral students who have successfully been awarded the title of Doctor, is declared elected;
 - (b) If the number of doctoral students successfully supervised to the awarding of the title of Doctor is the same, the candidate with the longest period of activity is declared elected as a member of the council of the doctoral school/CSUD.
- (2) In case of equality in the number of votes obtained for doctoral students, the following 2 tie-breaking criteria shall be taken into account:
 - (a) the candidate with the highest number of scientific articles published during their doctoral studies is declared elected;
 - (b) if the number of published scientific articles is the same, the candidate with the highest number of oral communications/posters at international conferences is declared elected.

Art. 19.

The result of the vote shall be displayed on the www.doctorat.unibuc.ro website, after filling in the minutes according to Annex no. 6, for each constituency.

Art. 20.

Any appeals of the candidates declared ineligible, which concern procedural aspects, shall be formulated in writing and shall be submitted physically to the UB Registry, during working hours or electronically, at birou@doctorat.unibuc.ro address , within a maximum of 2 working days from the posting of the applications, until 3 p.m.

Art. 21.

The appeal, formulated in writing, and submitted according to art. 20, will be solved by the Central Election Commission within a maximum of 1 working day, the term starting to run from the first working day following the one on which it was registered.

Art. 22.

The response to the appeal shall be communicated to the petitioner within 24 hours from its formulation, by the president of the Central Election Commission and the president of the commission shall draft, as the case may be, the final report.

Art. 23.

(1) The UB Senate validates the result of the elections and the composition of the CSUD.

(2) The Rector of the University of Bucharest shall appoint, by decision, the members of the CSUD validated following the elections.

Art. 24.

If a position in the CSUD becomes vacant, by-elections will be held to fill it until the five-year term is completed.

CHAPTER III. Transitional and final provisions

Art. 25.

The mandate of the members of the CSUD starts from the date on which the decision of the Rector to appoint the composition of the CSUD was issued.

Art. 26.

The personal data of persons involved in the election process are processed in compliance with the provisions of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (General Data Protection Regulation).

Art. 27.

The provisions of this Methodology were approved by the Senate of the University of Bucharest in the meeting of

R E C T O R,

Prof. univ. dr. Marian PREDA
